4,500 U. S. CAVALRY ENTER MEXICO

PERSHING TO FOLLOW SOON WITH BIG FORCE

DESPITE FRIENDLY ASSURANCES OF CARRANZA, AMERICAN ARMY OFFICERS BELIEVE MEXICAN SOLDIERS WILL RESIST INVASION.

(By International News Service.)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 15.—An American cavalry force numbering 4,500 men under the command of Colonel George A. Dodd, crossed from Columbus, New Mexico into Mexico early this morning, according to reliable reports received here.

At 10:00 o'clock last night Funston states he had received no official confirmation for the movement of troops across the international border so the expedition has been left entirely in the hands of Pershing, who had the right to order an advance at any moment he saw fit.

Pershing to Follow with Large Force.

The expedition consists of parts of the Thirtieth, Tenth, Eighth and Seventeenth regiments of cavalry with two ambulance corps and a field hospital. The fact that Colonel Dodd is in command is taken to mean that Pershing will soon follow with a larger force.

First Air Squadron at Columbus.

The first air squadron reached Columbus, New Mexico, last night, but is not expected to be in shape for scout duty until Friday. The tension and suspense in regard to what sort of a reception the United States soldiers will receive at the hands of the Carranza troops is intense. Many army officers believe something in the nature of a surprise lies in wait for the "boys in khaki" despite the friendly assurances of the provisional ruler. The censorship established at Columbus is still most rigid and it is almost impossible to secure any "live news."

WASHINGTON, March 15.—When Secretary of War Baker reached his office at 9:15 this morning he stated there were no important new developments on the Mexican border. He said further he was still without advice as to whether or not troops had actually crossed the international line.

SPECIAL DISPATCH FROM COLUMBUS; EVIDENTLY HEAVILY CENSORED

(By Edmond Behr, Staff Correspondent of the I. N. S.)

COLUMBUS, New Mexico, March 15.—Today broke over the army camp clear and sunshiny after a busy night of preparation for the entry of the punitive expedition into Mexico. Officers and civilians believe that the Carranza garrison at Palomas will offer no resistance to the Americans. (This dispatch was, no doubt, heavily censored.)

GERMANS CAPTURE DEADMAN'S HILL.

(By International News Service.)

BERLIN, March 15.—The Germans have captured Deadman's hill north of Verdun and taken 1,000 French prisoners.

CARRANZA TROOPS KILL COMMANDER IN REVOLT; TO JOIN VILLA BANDITS

(By International News Service.)

PRESIDIO, Texas, March 15.—The Carranza troops stationed at Ojiniga, just across the border, have mutinied and killed General Sojas, their commander. The soldiers declare their intention of joining Villa and resisting the advance of the American troops.

The revolt of the provisional ruler's men has been one of the gravest fears in military circles throughout the United States. Authorities along the entire border look for war with entire Mexico before long. Sojas was one of Carranza's ablest generals.

DR. HASELDEN DROPPED FROM CHICAGO MED. SOCIETY

(By International News Service.)

CHICAGO, March 15.—Doctor Harry Haiselden, who gained nation-wide notoriety by refusing to operate on the Bollinger baby, was dropped from the Chicago Medical society today for "unethical conduct."

SECOND EXPEDITION MOBILIZED.

(By International News Service.)

HACHITA, New Mexico, March 15 (3 p. m.). The second column of the American expedition which will sweep through Mexico was mobilized at Culberson's ranch, 50 miles south of here. It is apparently only awaiting the arrival of the first cavalry before advancing.

NEGRESS FINED $15 FOR SHOP LIFTING

"Willie" Downs, a negress, working for M. Campagna, was brought before the mayor's court this morning at 9:30 o'clock to answer the charge of shop-lifting in Peck-Hendricks' dry goods store. She was fined $15.

Willie entered the store Monday with Campagna's child (filling the capacity of nurse), and artfully tucked away some valuable pieces of silk in the crown of the youngster's hat. She also hid one strip in the child's coat. A clerk saw her in the act and apprehended her before she could leave the building.

Miss Katherine C. Ganley, Editor.

Society Happenings For the Coming Week

Thursday afternoon, three of Daytona's all-the-year-round society matrons, Mrs. E. T. Conrad, Mrs. F. N. Conrad and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald, will entertain at an auction bridge party in the Palmetto clubhouse, to which a number of invitations have been sent out.

A St. Patrick's card party will be held at the Palmetto clubhouse, Friday afternoon, under the direction of the Palmetto club.

A number of invitations have been issued by Miss Geraldine Davey of Palmetto avenue for a St. Patrick's party, to be given at her home, Friday evening. This young lady has expressed a wish that each of her guests wear something significant of the Patron Saint of Ireland.

Miss Hazel Nelson will entertain at a card party at her home, 44 North Ridgewood avenue, Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Aida Hayward, house guest of Mrs. Murray L. Stanley.

The Priestess of Nature and Her Nine Nymphs will be presented at the Palmetto clubhouse, Thursday evening, March 23rd, under the direction of Mrs. Livingston Jacques. This will be given with orchestra accompaniment, illustrating harmony. Several other attractions will also be presented.

PRETTY DANCING PARTY AT PALMETTO CLUBHOUSE

A very pretty dance was given at the Palmetto clubhouse Tuesday evening by Miss Hildegard Courtney and Miss Marion Hilliard, two popular society buds, to a number of their friends.

The clubhouse was artistically decorated with red roses and red balloons. The Despland orchestra furnished music for the dance. Several attractive features of the program were the Paul Jones which afforded a great deal of merriment, the red balloon dance, and the fox trots, the music for which was all the last year's popular hits.

The dancing frocks of the girls were exceedingly lovely. Miss Courtney was charming in a red taffeta style bouffant, with bodice of red tulle and cream embroidered net, narrow bands of mink completed this pretty frock. Miss Hilliard most attractive in apricot taffeta with apricot tulle on bodice, bandings of silver. Mesdames Courtney and Hilliard chaperoned the function.

HOLLY HILL

HOLLY HILL, March 15.—Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Yocum and son, Lyle, E. H. Glover and sister, Miss Glover, have moved into their bungalow, which has recently been remodeled.

W. H. DeBerry and daughter, Bessie, left today for Sumter, S. C., where Mrs. DeBerry, who has been visiting her sister in Wren, S. C., during the winter, will join them and they will make their home. Mr. DeBerry has been living here for the past six or eight years.

A. A. Bunnell has sold his property on South Beach street to J. E. Thompson, who will make extensive improvements.

Quite a number of Holly Hill residents attended the Sunday school convention at the Congregational church, Daytona, Tuesday.

Mrs. H. S. Roland and Miss J. Quatlebaum visited Mrs. H. F. Thompson, in Daytona, Monday.

Mrs. Grover DeBerry and children have moved to Kingston, where they will reside until later in the season, when they will join Mr. DeBerry in Detroit, Michigan.

Dr. S. E. Eastman will hold services in the Union church, next Sunday afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock.

Would Outgrow It.

A Louisville journalist was excessively proud of his little boy. Turning to the old black nurse, "Auntie," said he, stroking the little pate, "this boy seems to have a journalistic head." "Oh," cried the untutored old auntie, soothingly, "never you mind bout dat; 'at'll come right 'n time."

New Stars.

Many questions have been asked in regard to the probable fate of new stars, after they have ceased to attract special attention. It has been shown that such stars which have appeared in recent years have been converted into nebulae, and later, in many cases, into extremely faint stars of apparently normal condition.

REMAINS TAKEN TO DE LEON SPRINGS FOR INTERMENT

The remains of Dana Clyde Koontz, whose death from heart failure at his home in Daytona Beach, Tuesday morning, was noted in The News of Tuesday afternoon, were taken to De Leon Springs this morning for interment beside those of one of his children. The funeral party made the trip by automobile, Rev. Dr. Robert McKay, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, of this city, accompanying them to conduct the funeral service.

Mr. Koontz had been employed in the Hooper barber shop in this city and was in ordinary health, apparently, up to the day of his death. Tuesday morning he complained of headache on rising, but thought it only a temporary indisposition, and Mrs. Koontz telephoned Mr. Hooper that he would be at the shop as soon as he felt a little better. He expired shortly afterward.

Optimistic Thought.

Who would be innocent if mere accusation could convict.

Drawing the Line.

Tomdix—"Is it true that young Greene's engagement is off?" Hojax—"Yes." Tomdix—"What was the trouble—did the girl decline to live in a flat?" Hojax—"No; with one."

CASINO ADDITION WILL BE POPULAR

While Commodore Burgoyne and a representative of the News were overlooking the addition to the Casino from a position on the causeway to the City Island, Tuesday afternoon, discussing the progress of the work and the pleasure which would be derived from the addition in the summer months by the stay-at-homes and summer visitors, a well known lady resident stopped and expressed the very thought under discussion at the moment by saying that she expected to enjoy this feature of the Casino many times during the summer while she did not care for automobiling or the trouble of driving to the ocean beach. It promises to be a favorite resting spot and social gathering place for Daytona's residents during summer afternoons and evenings.

Optimistic Thought.

The old age of the eagle is better than the youth of the sparrow.

To Remove Brown Stains.

From earthenware dishes and plates caused by putting them in the oven, soak in strong borax and hot water.

MANY TOURISTS AND AUTOMOBILES HERE

As an indication of the number of visitors now being entertained by Daytona and the towns of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze and especially the great number of automobiles here this season, Commodore Burgoyne says that while driving down Beach street, Tuesday afternoon, he was unable to find a place to park his machine anywhere from Volusia avenue to the middle of the block south of Orange avenue and notwithstanding the various other attractions in the entertainment line, there was a big crowd at the band concert in the Casino.

From the Latin.

The Russians, who were slightly influenced by the Latin races, say that "dogs bark and the wind carries it away," but the French, Spaniards, Germans and English, who have inherited more than they wish to acknowledge from ancient Rome, all agree that "barking dogs don't bite," and we have also in English the warning to "have a care for a silent dog and still water," which is clearly a free translation of the Latin original.

You will find, too, that this is the store of standardized merchandise. For instance, we particularly ask your inspection of our stock of Simmons Metal Beds—the inviting new models in the new finishes that you have seen advertised in The Ladies' Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post. So beautiful are they, and so unusual are the finishes, you will find it hard to believe they can be of everlasting, sanitary steel. Be sure to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Mendelssohn and two children, maid, and father, Mr. Baker, left for their home in Detroit, after enjoying a stay of a month in Daytona Beach, guests of the Seaside Inn. Mr. Mendelssohn is a prominent business man of Detroit, being the publishing agent for the Fisher Body company, of that city. They were here on account of their health and left feeling greatly benefited by their stay on the beach. They were charmed with the beach and are planning to return next season. They made a host of friends at this popular hotel, all of whom regretted to have them leave. The party will visit in St. Augustine and Jacksonville en route home.

Mrs. W. R. P. Van Pelt, who had been a guest at the Lyndhurst on Second avenue for nearly two months past, departed this morning on her return to Brooklyn, N. Y., where she makes her home at the Mohawk hotel. Mrs. Van Pelt has numerous friends in Daytona, having spent several previous seasons here, although she did not come to Daytona last winter.

Bird Travelers.
The greatest travelers in the world are arctic terns, which fly 22,000 miles a year. Humming birds have been known to fly the 700 miles across the Gulf of Mexico. At a point half-way across they stop humming "Dixie" and begin "La Paloma."

Flax-Growing a Failure.
Flax-growing has not proved successful in the United States, although about $3,000,000 of flax fiber and more than $20,000,000 of linen goods are imported yearly. Failure of the European supply suggests a new attempt, and a Farmer's Bulletin reports that the fiber flax from Puget sound compares favorably with the famous product of Courtrai, Belgium, and that Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan also yield good fiber. As preparation of the fiber requires technical knowledge and skill, co-operative associations for securing expert aid are proposed.

His Sad State.
"My Uncle Festus is in a deplorable condition," related Maudlin Morose. "He has such sinister symptoms and so many of them that he is firmly convinced that he is being hurried to the tomb by a serious malady, but just what it is he doesn't know. You see, he got hold of a patent medicine almanac giving a long list of symptoms which he at once recognized as being the very ones that he himself was entertaining, although he wouldn't have known he had 'em if he hadn't read it there in uncompromising black and white. And then he found to his horror that the next page, giving the name of the awful disease which caused those symptoms was torn out. So now he knows beyond the peradventure of a doubt that there is something terrible the matter with him, but can't determine what it is."

Eye Wash.
If your eyes have a burning feeling when you go home from business at night, bathe with a lotion made as follows: Boric acid, one ounce; boiling water one pint. Put the boric acid in a basin and pour on the hot water and allow it to dissolve before bottling. Do not depend upon this, though, as your eyes undoubtedly need the attention of an oculist, and it is best to give them attention at once.

Cost of Living High in Teheran.
In normal times Teheran, Persia, is one of the most expensive cities in the world in which to live, so states Vice-Consul Ralph H. Bader. Coal sells for $20 per ton; apples, $3.50 per bushel; cheese, 60 cents per pound; ham, 65 cents per pound; butter, 50 cents per pound. These high prices are largely caused by the lack of transportation facilities. Coal is transported to Teheran from the nearest mine (a distance of 50 miles) by donkeys. Goods imported through the Persian gulf are transported from Mohamerah or Bushire to Teheran (a distance of 300 miles) by mules and camels, and are usually from six to twelve weeks in transit. Goods imported through Russia are subject to a heavy transit duty and are transported across the mountains from Enzeli to Teheran (a distance of 250 miles) by pack animals and wagons.

Optimistic Department, Devoted to Cheering Up "The Land of Sunshine."
 (By GENE JONES.)

Gee! we sure did have some chase with that thief yesterday. The story is a startling one. Let me not mince words! We were prowling along through the hammock with guns ready. Suddenly in the tricky, treacherous, tangled, tropical undergrowth, we saw him. Curses! He saw us at the same moment. He raised his weapon and fired. We raised our weapons and fired. My, what a race! Never have I run so fast. Over logs, through bogs, around streams, through trees—no, no, wait a minute; I'm twisted—through streams and around trees. Gentlemen, 'twas a terrible race. But we succeeded. There is nothing like success. Yes, sir; we done left that thief three miles behind!

Let me whisper a word about what is to follow. We are not an agency for jails and the Clarendon is not paying us for this space as advertisement. We do not even know if that commendable hostility would consider the suggestion embodied in the beautiful little poem below.

WHAT AILS THE JAILS?

Don't talk of city halls and things,
 Just listen to the wall—
 That to our ears such horror brings,
 "A town without a jail."

Our "cooler" now has met its death,
 'Twas only four feet wide;
 Last night a jail-bird drew his breath,
 And "busted out the side."

And now the town can boast no jail,
 Nor bars of any kind;
 So hide your diamonds, hide your kahle
 Away from prying mind.

They plan to board the criminals now,
 At Hotel Clarendon;
 We don't see why, we don't see how—
 It surely can't be done.

They're going to put them on the roof,
 Beneath the Seabreeze sky,
 Where they can strictly keep aloof
 From high-brows passing by.

It is a shame to smudge the name,
 Of far-famed hostility,
 But we must have, it's very plain,
 A PEN-ITEN-TIARY!

ENTERTAINS SON OF WOMAN WHO BEFRIENDED HIM

A rare pleasure came to the household of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Condit this week in the entertainment of Dr. M. P. Malcolm, of Charleston, West Virginia. The doctor is a prominent physician and high official of that city. Fifty-four years ago last September, after a battle in which Mr. Condit's regiment was surprised, badly defeated and scattered in the mountains of West Virginia, Dr. Malcolm's mother, then an unmarried girl of 18, hid Mr. Condit in a cave along the bank of a creek running near the home and fed him for 14 days; at times when the front yard or the roadway was more or less filled with Confederate soldiers. While Mr. Condit was living in this cave the Confederates confiscated every horse (seven) on the place and made the last apple into cider, almost before his eyes. Of course Mr. Condit will never forget the exceeding kindness and hospitality of this Southern woman who saved him from a rebel prison and more than likely from death, or a shattered physical wreck.

He had often entertained some members of this West Virginia family in his Chicago home. At one time, during the world's fair in that city, he sent for this lady and daughter, paying their expenses both ways and entertaining them during a protracted visit, but Dr. Malcolm, now a man of 48 years, is the first of the family he has had the pleasure of entertaining in his Florida home and showing him Daytona and its environments.

Every day is summer in Daytona.

AUSTRIA TO DECLARE AGAINST PORTUGAL

SOME STRANGE PEOPLE WITH J. JONES' SHOWS

An organization like the Johnny J. Jones' Exposition shows, which are exhibiting on the City Island this week, brings together people of every race, and from every clime. There are bushmen from far off Australia, Eskimos from the frozen wastes of Labrador, bonnie Scotch highlanders and a genuine African princess, who is seven feet six and one-half inches in height, there is a fat lady who weighs seven hundred twenty-five pounds and a young man who resembles a sea lion in his physical make-up, while a girl who is exhibited possesses many of the characteristics of an alligator. Over at the big side show where most of these curiosities are exhibited, a lady who is said to be the "seventh daughter of the seventh child; born with a 'veil,'" according to her announcer's statement, tells one's history completely while blindfolded. She is said to be the original Mlle. Nina, the Georgia telepathic wonder.

So it goes down the midway, interspersed, here and there, between the shows which give complete performances, one finds some curiosity, which a clever showman has picked up in the maelstrom of a big city or in the seclusion of the rural districts. In all this concourse, however, there is nothing or no one more interesting, or at the same time furnishing food for thought than little George Rodgers and his family. George is a wee bit of a fellow, weighing just ninety pounds and the year before last while the Jones company was exhibiting at a big celebration in Philadelphia, George took unto himself a wife, just half as small as himself. There was nothing really remarkable about this. They were a cute couple and that was all. But when on Christmas day last, a baby arrived the Rogers family became a headline attraction right then, for in all the annals of medical surgery there is no record where a couple so small have been blessed with a child. Margaret Marie Rogers, the latest addition to the now popular triumvirate, is in all respects, except one, a normal kid. The exception is in size. She weighs just five pounds but that, after all, is quite natural when one sizes up her parents. But Margie is as healthy as the next youngster and unusually bright and playful for her age. She seems to be quite happy and contented in her cradle looking up at the crowds who visit the enclosure where she and her father and mother are exhibited. Rogers, senior, is a remarkable fellow in that he possesses a wonderful physical development and lifts enormous weights, exceeding his own avoirdupois, with apparent ease. The Jones' shows continue to please large crowds, the free acts taking well

ARRIVES ON FREIGHT CAR; LEAVES IN AUTO

Earl Drexler, on his way nowhere and hailing from the Universe, was brought before the justice's court this morning to answer a charge of vagrancy. He pleaded guilty and was bound over under a $100.00 bond to the DeLand criminal court. He will go to the county seat by auto.

Drexler intentionally took his first step along the Primrose path yesterday about dusk when he begged a meal at W. W. Ledwith's residence on West Orange Avenue, and in return for the food stole a handsome meerschaum pipe belonging to the lord of the manor. He was apprehended later while asking for money along the same street.

Now the strange part of the affair developed in the fact Drexler wishes to go to jail. He states he arrived in Daytona enroute north from New Smyrna yesterday morning, riding "the tops," with the determination to get himself in trouble so he might help build roads for the county. He will move on to Kansas after six months or so with a convict gang.

Safety First.

"You say that you want some name engraved on this ring," said the jeweler to the hapless young man. "Yes, I want the words 'George to his dearest Alice' engraved on the inside of the ring." "Is the young lady your sister?" "No, she is the young lady to whom I am engaged." "Well, if I were you I would not have 'George to his dearest Alice' engraved on the ring. If Alice changes her mind you can't use the ring again." "What would you suggest?" "I would suggest the words 'George to his first and only love.' You see, with that inscription you can use the ring half a dozen times. I have had experience in such matters myself."—New York Journal.

Made Jack Sweat.

While enjoying the new-found bliss of the honeymoon a doting bridegroom fired a tandem bicycle and took his bride for an afternoon's roundabout run. The fair lady knew little or nothing about wheeling. The fond husband got his head down and plugged along as hard as a galley-slave every inch of the 35 miles, and when they got to the journey's end the perspiration was streaming from every pore in his anatomy. But not so his charming wife. She stood by as cool and unconcerned as possible, and when the poor benighted had recovered his breath a little, judge of his feelings when she gingerly touched one of the pedals and sweetly inquired: "Oh, Jack, what are these little peddles for?"

Friends of Rolland E. Stevens are urging him to become a candidate for county commissioner before the Democratic primary to succeed Jerome D. Maley, who will be a candidate for state senator.

Mr. Stevens is a man of unquestionable integrity and ability, being by profession, a civil engineer, although he has not followed the profession for many years. He is at present one of the largest orange growers in Volusia county, and has the confidence of all the people.

Filling Hollow Trees.

In some parts of the country the practice of filling hollow trees with concrete has been superseded by one involving the use of a mixture of asphalt and sawdust. It is claimed the mixture costs less for both material and labor of handling and is just as durable. It certainly is not of equal strength with concrete, unless there be found some method of making it more solid than would be the case with a loose mixture of the two materials named. Good paving blocks are made of sawdust and asphalt, but they are produced under great pressure. Their use for tree filling has not yet stood the test of time.

All Wind.

In an obscure country chapel a young minister had, as he thought, preached with considerableunction. He had used in his sermon, for an illustration of storm and peace, the storm on the Lake of Galilee. That storm was depicted as one of lightning and thunder, and rain and wind. As he came out of the chapel one of the members tackled him in the midst of the people. He began by saying: "That was a wonderful description of thine of the storm; the only thing about it was, it wasn't true. Who told thee it thundered and lightened and rained?" "Why," said the preacher, "those are the natural accompaniments of a storm." "Ah," said he, "but if thee had read thy Bible thee would have known that it was a storm of wind, not like thine."

PENINSULA ACREAGE

Between Seabreeze and Ormond, will prove to be the best investment, in this territory, within a few years.

Let me show you a tract containing about 135 acres with 1300 feet front on the Ocean, running through to the river, where it has 2200 feet front.

Or a 50 acre tract with 1000 feet on the Ocean and 700 feet on the river.

Either of these tracts can be bought for what will seem a ridiculously low price within a few years.

Now is the time to buy, soon it will be too late.

GERMANS LOSE 200,000

IN VERDUN OPERATIONS

(By International News Service.)

PARIS, March 15.—It is officially announced in this city that the losses in the ranks of the French army amount to only one fourth of the German losses. The losses of the Kaiser's troops are said to reach the appalling figure of 200,000.

By a counter attack, the French have regained a part of the trenches captured by the Germans on the west bank of the Meuse yesterday.
